booked. A quick conversation at ☎+1(888) 727 0205 can clarify if you are eligible for a free cancellation or if a fee applies.

Understanding AAdvantage Cancellations

In many cases, American Airlines allows members to cancel award tickets and have miles put back into their account without a fee, provided the cancellation is done before the first flight departs. The team available at ☎+1(888) 727 0205 can confirm the exact terms of your specific ticket class.

It is important to note that while miles are refundable, any taxes and carrier-imposed fees you paid might be handled differently. When you make your inquiry at ☎+1(888) 727 0205, be sure to ask about the refund method for the cash portion of your booking. Sometimes this is refunded to the original credit card, and other times it may be issued as a flight credit.
